There's a new, easy, and tax-deductible way to support California arts education and arts programs this holiday season.

Give the iconic California Arts Plate as a gift with the new Arts Plate gift voucher program.

Proceeds from sales and renewals of the Arts Plate provide millions of dollars in support for arts education programs across California. So head on over to artsplate.org and purchase a gift voucher (or two or three) for your loved ones, friends, or colleagues.

With California Arts Plates on their cars, they'll send a powerful message to everyone on the road: I'm driving creativity, innovation, and success for California's next generation!
