Application ID, Organization, County, Grant Award Amount	Project Description
AE-EXT-17-1844 24th Street Theatre Company Los Angeles County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, 24TH STREET THEATRE COMPANY will provide free immersive, after-school and summer arts classes and mentoring opportunities for up to 100 low-income, K-12 youth. Program activities align with California Visual and Performing Arts Standards and include two culminating performances through which students will demonstrate skills learned. Classes will be conducted on the stage at 24th Street Theatre and be led by highly qualified teaching artists.
AE-EXT-17-1758 3 Point 0 Sacramento County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, 3Point0, Inc. DBA Studio T Urban Dance Academy will partner with nonprofits, schools, and community centers to bring enriching after-school and summer dance and performing arts classes to K-12th grade students in arts starved communities throughout Greater Sacramento. Funds will be use to purchase portable studio equipment, for facilities rental, to secure necessary equipment and transportation for students, and for staffing costs.
AE-EXT-17-1502 916 Ink Sacramento County $13,500	With support from the California Arts Council, 916 INK will provide 3, week-long Amplify Your Voice Summer Camps to serve 60-90 elementary school students in South Sacramento with an intensive arts education experience, transforming them into published authors, fostering improved academic skills and producing one professional anthology of student work. Students will have opportunities to engage with local artists in music, performance and fine arts to explore different storytelling methods.

AE-EXT-17-1597 A Step Beyond San Diego County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, A Step Beyond will maintain and expand its core dance education component. A Step Beyond (ASB) is a creative after-school youth development program whose core activity is dance education and performance. ASB serves a population of very low-income children and youth from North Inland San Diego County, providing dance, academic support, social support, counseling, and family involvement opportunities over a nine to ten year period.
AE-EXT-17-1849 Abada-Capoeira San Francisco San Francisco County $17,100	With support from the California Arts Council, ABADÁ-Capoeira San Francisco will provide after-school, weekend and summertime arts education to youth, grades K-12. Programs focus on Brazilian arts, particularly capoeira, and are held in schools and at our Mission District Capoeira Arts Center. Programs are free or low-cost to participants and target youth with limited access to quality art and physical education. Funds support artistic fees, program materials, and operational and outreach costs.
AE-EXT-17-1557 Actors Gang Inc Los Angeles County $13,500	With support from the California Arts Council, The Actors' Gang will deliver 5 theatre workshops at The Actors' Gang for elementary and middle school students offering skills-based workshops in our unique style of theatre which explores emotional states, characters of the Commedia dell'Arte, and ensemble building. Students work in an artistically safe space, collaboratively with their peers and professional theatre artists. Each session culminates in an original theatre piece.
AE-EXT-17-1777 Advaita Society Alameda County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, Kala Art Institute (Advaita Society) will offer Camp Kala, a six-week summer art program for children and youth ages 6-17 on-site at Kala Art Institute. Each session is one week, led by a teaching-artist with assistance from three assistants serving 18 young artists per week. Each year, we strengthen our equity and inclusion plan, making this hands--on summer art making and learning experience accessible to all our young neighbors.
AE-EXT-17-1776 Aimusic School Santa Clara County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, Aimusic School will provide a Chinese Music Education for Youth program whose tuition is waived for new students. 10 teaching artists will give 40-60 students from the age of 6-9, learning traditional Chinese instruments for a whole school year. With 30 sessions, each includes an instrumental class followed by a music theory. The grant fund will be used for paying the artists and the rental of classroom facility in San Jose City College.
AE-EXT-17-1735 The Aja Project San Diego County $10,298	With support from the California Arts Council, The Aja Project will engage youth in the community of City Heights in Aja's Youth Media Project which positions young people as knowledge bearers in their communities and elevates their voices into the public sphere through the arts . In doing so, youth are disrupting the false narratives that can often perpetuate cycles of thought and behavior, at the individual and societal level.

AE-EXT-17-1821 Alonzo King Lines Ballet San Francisco County $4,978	With support from the California Arts Council, Alonzo King LINES Ballet will provide free after-school dance education through HeART with LINES school and community partners, serving primarily low-income students of color. Students are given an opportunity to learn dance concepts, experiment with movement, and develop ideas through choreography in a safe and accessible environment. Current partners include the Tenderloin Boys and Mission Boys and Girls Clubs, and De Marillac Academy.
AE-EXT-17-1862 Angelica Center for Arts and Music Los Angeles County $13,500	With the support from the California Arts Council, ANGELICA CENTER FOR ARTS AND MUSIC will strive to achieve our goals of serving underserved youth in need of constructive and creative arts activities; increasing the hourly pay rates of our instructors to reach parity with similar organizations and recruit and retain a qualified and dedicated staff; and strengthening the quality and effectiveness of the program and staff through professional development opportunities.
AE-EXT-17-1838 Angels Gate Cultural Center Inc Los Angeles County $13,500	With support from the California Arts Council, ANGELS GATE CULTURAL CENTER INC will provide a comprehensive 2nd-12th grade after school visual arts program at the Boys and Girls Club of the LA Harbor, dubbed Studio 327. The entire program offers dance and visual arts education to Elementary students, while older students will receive music and visual arts education as we collaborate with Pony Box Dance Company and Jazz Angels. This funding request works to fund the visual arts components.
AE-EXT-17-1934 Armory Center for the Arts Los Angeles County $17,100	With support from the California Arts Council, the Armory Center for the Arts will deliver 12 afterschool artist residencies at Learning Works School in East Pasadena and Learning Works @ Homeboy Industries in Boyle Heights. The program uses the transformative powers of arts education to re-engage in-crisis teens—dropouts, probation youth, expelled youth, and pregnant teens and teen moms—with their education, their peers, their families, and the community.
AE-EXT-17-1762 Art of Élan San Diego County $13,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Art of Élan will provide its “Young Artists in Harmony” (YAH) afterschool residency program in partnership with A Reason To Survive (ARTS), which uses arts to transform the lives of at-risk youth. The 10-week residency consists of weekly workshops where student composers are mentored by Art of Élan professional musicians who showcase the works in 2 public concerts that are recorded for online streaming to be enjoyed by listeners worldwide.
AE-EXT-17-1548 Arts Collaborative of Nevada County Nevada County $4,493	With support from the California Arts Council, the ARTS COLLABORATIVE OF NEVADA COUNTY (ACNC) will provide weekly instruction in visual arts to K-6 After School and Summer School students in Grass Valley and Penn Valley School Districts. All arts lessons integrate CA visual arts standards with Common Core curriculum or school-adopted character education. ACNC and partner NEO will provide older students (gr. 6-12) after school arts instruction in music, photography, recording, and painting.

AE-EXT-17-1641 Arts Council Santa Cruz County Santa Cruz County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, Arts Council Santa Cruz County hires teaching artists to train high school students in the arts (visual arts, guitar, drumming, theater, and dance) and together, they teach elementary and middle school students. The vast majority of teachers and students are Latinx, Spanish-speaking, and grew up in Watsonville. The program helps youth develop creative skills, a love for the arts, positive self-expression, and leadership abilities.
AE-EXT-17-1573 Attitudinal Healing Connection Inc Alameda County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, AHC will implement after school programming for ArtEsteem’s West Oakland Legacy Project (WOLP), an arts integrated curricula emphasizing leadership development, environmental awareness, and STEAM programming. In partnership with Oakland Unified School District (OUSD), local artists, and local art-based businesses, the project will increase successful artistic opportunities for at-risk children and youth in West Oakland.
AE-EXT-17-1631 Bay Area Music Project Alameda County $14,250	With support from the California Arts Council, the Bay Area Music Project will provide 105 elementary school children with 38 weeks of intensive after school music instruction, academic support, and inspiring experiences. Following the respected El Sistema model, two dedicated teaching artists will work with children every weekday in an orchestra setting, with multi-level classes in winds, choir, and music exploration. Approximately 60% of BAMP’s students qualify for free or reduced-price lunch.
AE-EXT-17-1442 Bayview Hunters Point Center for Arts and Technology San Francisco County $17,100	With support from the California Arts Council, BAYCAT will provide hands-on digital media arts education at no cost to 150 underrepresented youth in San Francisco. Professional teaching artists empower youth to discover their own creative voices by giving them unparalleled access to high quality digital media technology and training. Semesters culminate in screening events that create an opportunity to celebrate diverse artists, build social justice awareness and amplify community dialogue.
AE-EXT-17-1686 Bayview Opera House Inc San Francisco County $13,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Bayview Opera House will provide 10 classes of 15 class hours each, in hip hop and modern dance, sculpture, mixed media and painting, to 120-180 Bayview elementary school children. Classes will be taught by PUSH Dance Company, and teaching artist William Rhodes. Classes will emphasize learning through the arts and support the creative development of the whole child. A culminating professionally produced event will showcase the outcomes.
AE-EXT-17-1761 Bell Arts Factory Ventura County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, BELL ARTS FACTORY will continue and expand our Youth Art Program. We are currently offering classes on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday for children ages 5 to 12. We want to offer classes on Monday and Tuesday, offer art series for adolescents, and expand our Spanish Language Summer Art Camp. This funding will help us reach more children, offer a diverse array of arts instruction, purchase supplies, and allow us to bring in guest teachers.
AE-EXT-17-1540 Blue Line Arts Placer County $13,500	With support from the California Arts Council, BLUE LINE ARTS will introduce 25 teenagers to the art of architecture through a 30-hour summer class integrating art and inspiring imaginations as they develop an understanding of how cities are designed and built. The summer break class will take place at the Blue Line Arts Gallery in downtown Roseville, in collaboration with Placer County Office of Education.

AE-EXT-17-1865 Boomshake Music Alameda County $9,350	With support from the California Arts Council, Boomshake Music will offer workshops in multicultural street and popular drumming to students at two East Oakland elementary schools. Working with teaching artists from diverse backgrounds, students will learn traditional rhythms and develop their own creative voices through percussion, song, and storytelling. By performing at schools, festivals and social justice events, students will use music to reflect on and engage with their communities.
AE-EXT-17-1626 Boys and Girls Clubs of Santa Cruz County Santa Cruz County $6,800	With support from the California Arts Council, Boys & Girls Clubs of Santa Cruz County (BGCSCC) will offer 60 underserved children and teenagers (ages 8-15) no- or low-cost interactive summer art classes that explore large-scale art installations. AE-EXT-17-1623 California Symphony Orchestra Inc Contra Costa County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, the California Symphony will transform futures of elementary-age students through orchestral music training to combat poverty, strengthen education, and foster positive decision-making to unlock the world. Sound Minds is a comprehensive after-school program, inspired by El Sistema, and provides hands-on music instruction and academic enrichment to young, low-income students after school three days a week at no cost to students and families.
AE-EXT-17-1833 Cantare Con Vivo Alameda County $17,100	With support from the California Arts Council, Cantare Con Vivo will provide 150 underserved Oakland youth with free, in-depth choral music classes and performance opportunities. Through weekly rehearsals, students will learn VAPA-aligned music skills, sing music from diverse cultures and styles and gain self-confidence and poise through performing. After-School Choirs will rehearse weekly and perform regularly over 32-week residencies; Summer program will rehearse daily for two weeks.
AE-EXT-17-1748 Cazadero Performing Arts Camp Inc Alameda County $14,250	With support from the California Arts Council, Cazadero Performing Arts Camp will offer seven weeks of sleep-away summer instrumental music camp in the redwoods of Western Sonoma County. Open to aspiring musicians ages 10-18 from all socio-economic levels (particular emphasis in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties), in-residence music educators work closely with young musicians to grow skill-sets and musicianship in music genres from classical to jazz in solo, small, and large ensemble settings.
AE-EXT-17-1739 Center for Community Arts, City of Walnut Creek Contra Costa County $12,038	With support from the California Arts Council, Center for Community Arts will deepen partnerships with 3 public schools in Concord and Walnut Creek, expanding its after school arts programs to reach up to 160 mostly low-income students in grades 1-8. In each of 8, 15-session residencies, students will focus on a single discipline (vs. 2 the previous years) to enable more in-depth skill-building and deeper engagement in the creative process, and will share their learning in a culminating event.
AE-EXT-17-1909 Chinese Cultural Productions San Francisco County $10,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Chinese Cultural Productions will conduct an after-school dance program at John Yehall Chin Elementary School in San Francisco. CCP will provide four hours of weekly classes in traditional Chinese dance to approximately 25 students for 32 weeks. The program will culminate in one on-site (in-school) public performance and one public performance in a San Francisco arts venue.
AE-EXT-17-1660 City Hearts Kids Say Yes to the Arts LA Fringe Theatre Inc Los Angeles County $9,000	With support from the California Arts Council, CITY HEARTS KIDS SAY YES TO THE ARTS will offer FRESH FOCUS: A New Shot At Life, an in-depth, disciplined photography course for at-risk children. Beginning & advanced classes will be held 2x/week over the school year at Jefferson & Roosevelt EIS, and Whaley MS, Title 1 schools in Compton, CA. Taught by faculty member/professional photographer Brian Nieman, trained in the VAPA standards, program will serve 40, 3rd–8th grade students.

AE-EXT-17-1595 City of San Fernando Los Angeles County $17,100	With support from the California Arts Council, City of San Fernando Mariachi Master Apprentice Program will connect Grammy Award winning musicians with underserved youth in an after school experience focusing on beginner-advanced mariachi folk instrument instruction, arrangement, and performance skills. Targeting grades 6-12, the 32wk program incorporates artistic and historical concepts to preserve traditional mariachi music. Curriculum instills self-confidence, pride and positive identity.
AE-EXT-17-1867 The Colburn School Los Angeles County $17,100	With support from the California Arts Council, THE COLBURN SCHOOL will engage up to 105 students from 11 Title I public schools in Los Angeles in our Jumpstart Young Musicians Program. Over 30 weeks, students will receive the highest caliber of instrumental music training by Colburn faculty and Conservatory Teaching Artists. They will meet 7.5 to 8.5 hours per week for free, in-depth instruction, including full band, sectional rehearsals and private lessons.
AE-EXT-17-1737 Collage Dance Theatre Los Angeles County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, Heidi Duckler Dance Theatre (HDDT) will develop its arts education residency, "Duck Tales," in partnership with A Place Called Home and the Inglewood Senior Center. Community participants will use movement and objects of memory to build intergenerational bonds, culminating in a free public performance involving the youth, seniors and HDDT company dancers. Funds will be used for HDDT's teaching artists, educational materials and performer fees.
AE-EXT-17-1767 Community Initiatives/Harmony Project Bay Area San Francisco County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, Harmony Project Bay Area will continue its program of quality after school instrumental/orchestral music instruction to serve the 22 low income children (for a 2nd year) whose participation was funded by last year's CAC grant. The requested amount, plus matching, will pay for the necessary teaching artist/hours and supplies for one year. Each child will receive a minimum of 180 hours of group instruction, plus public performances, free of charge.
AE-EXT-17-1585 CRE Outreach Foundation Inc Los Angeles County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, CRE Outreach will provide 120 students with after-school music lessons through a partnership between our program, Outreach Through The Arts, and the Santa Monica Malibu Unified School District. All students in the district's music program, grades 4 - 12, that also qualify for the free or reduced school lunch program will qualify for our free after-school music lessons. The district will contribute funds to the project through their Bergman Endowment.
AE-EXT-17-1931 Cutting Ball Theater San Francisco County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, Cutting Ball Theater will teach three sessions of a theater class throughout the school year at De Marillac Academy in the Tenderloin neighborhood of San Francisco. Students will select a myth or folktale mined from a prevalent cultural population at De Marillac (Latinx, Pacific Islander, South East Asian). Students will adapt this story to modern day, and perform it for family, friends and community at a culminating event.
AE-EXT-17-1541 Dance & Drum in Humboldt Humboldt County $15,300	With support from the California Arts Council, Dance and Drum in Humboldt will provide music instruction for Humboldt County youth, ages 6-14. Our courses will operate during the summer of 2018, and through the after school programs at our partnering schools through the 2018-2019 school year.
