

2021 Administering Organization – Relief for Individual Artists and Cultural Practitioners (INR) Grant Listings

Purpose: What is the intended impact of this program?

Given the CAC’s commitment to racial equity, the CAC is seeking applications for an Administering Organization to manage a regranting program that provides rapid relief support grants to artists and cultural practitioners of color across the state of California who face dire economic consequences due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Program Administration

Administering Organization (AO)
The AO will be responsible for the planning and implementation of the rapid relief grant program, including but not limited to: development of program components and timeline; implementing statewide and culturally specific engagement strategies to priority communities and trusted culture bearers; regular reporting to and collaborating with the CAC on expanded outreach to ensure diverse statewide representation of applicants; management of the application processes for artists through implementation, screening applications, award management, and regular reporting to CAC.
