

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards JUMP StArts

The JUMP StArts program supports arts and culture education, apprenticeship and/or mentorship via artists-in-residence programs for system-engaged, system-impacted, and/or at-promise youth and young people through the age of 24. Activities may take place during or outside of traditional school hours at state- or county-operated correctional facilities; public settings; online; and at arts and culture venues, community centers, school sites, youth centers, and intergenerational settings.

Number of Grants Awarded: 93

Total Investment: $ 3,963,411

Applicant Organization	Application ID	County	Grant Award Amount	Applicant Organization
916 INK	JMP-21A-17362	SACRAMENTO	$ 23,421	With the support from the California Arts Council, 916 Ink will partner with North Sacramento's Neighborhood Wellness Foundation to serve up to 75 generationally gang-affiliated high school students with up to 36 hours of our trauma-informed curriculum in our Find Your Voice Creative Writing Workshop Series.
ACTORS GANG INC	JMP-21A-16432	LOS ANGELES	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, The Actors' Gang Prison Project will continue to provide programming to justice involved youth with its Youth Project.
ADVOT PROJECT	JMP-21A-17036	LOS ANGELES	$ 44,120	With support from the California Arts Council, The Advot Project (Advot) will provide three 15-week performing and visual arts workshops at Rockey Glen Camp. Using the arts to teach healthy communication skills, Advot will work with approximately 30 young men of promise, to create and perform original works of art.
ARMORY CENTER FOR THE ARTS	JMP-21A-16996	LOS ANGELES	$ 26,619	With support from the California Arts Council, Armory Center for the Arts will present four art making courses, serving 50-60 teens. Classes provide interventions for teens at-greatest-risk of entering the juvenile justice system; reduce recidivism for those who are incarcerated; build resiliency and other emotional and social skills.
ARTE DEL CORAZÓN	JMP-21A-17285	SANTA CRUZ	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Arte Del Corazón will implement our youth mentorship and internship program with youth from the Watsonville Community. Interested youth ages 15 to24 will gain experience working in a group setting, creating and showcasing artwork, marketing, event planting, curating and creating public art proposals.
ARTS COUNCIL FOR MONTEREY COUNTY	JMP-21A-16829	MONTEREY	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, the ARTS COUNCIL FOR MONTEREY COUNTY (Arts4MC) will empower juvenile offenders to manage their emotions, cultivate their potential, and find new direction through our award-winning Arts as Healing program.
ARTS COUNCIL SANTA CRUZ COUNTY	JMP-21A-16824	SANTA CRUZ	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Arts Council Santa Cruz County will pair artists and Alternative Education teachers to develop and teach an integrated arts curriculum that focuses on socio-emotional learning that builds resiliency and wellness and eliminates recidivism for high school students engaged in the justice system.
ARTS FOR THE SCHOOLS	JMP-21A-17711	PLACER	$ 28,063	With California Arts Council support, Arts For The Schools will expand and build upon our long-standing work with Community School students. Through a series of courses over a year, we will guide students in development of a personal story, and creation of works in visual arts, music, spoke-word, photography & film.
ARTS ORANGE COUNTY	JMP-21A-16466	ORANGE	$ 13,500	With support from the California Arts Council, ARTS ORANGE COUNTY will hire a professional teaching artist for a yearlong residency, expanding upon a successful pilot project he currently leads that engages Transitional Age Youth (TAY) inmates at the Orange County Jail's Theo Lacy Facility through creative writing workshops.
BLUE LINE ARTS	JMP-21A-17092	PLACER	$ 45,000	Blue Line Arts will partner with Pro Youth & Families, a social service provider, to provide arts-based after-care programming, mentorship, and creative workforce development opportunities for justice-involved youth in Placer and Sacramento Counties, equipping them with skills to be successful in re-entry.

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards
JUMP StArts

BOYLE HEIGHTS ARTS CONSERVATORY	JMP-21A-17422	LOS ANGELES	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council Boyle Heights Arts Conservatory will provide opportunities for currently incarcerated youth to receive Restorative Cultural Arts professional creative development training, along with mentor/femtor support, while at LA County Juvenile Camps/Halls to prepare them for paid internships upon their return to our collective communities.
CALIFORNIA CENTER FOR THE ARTS ESCONDIDO FOUNDATION	JMP-21A-16975	SAN DIEGO	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, the CCAE will collaborate with high school students in San Diego's north region Juvenile Court and Community Schools to develop an original Interview/Verbatim Theater production, and photographic exhibition at the CCAE, centered on the theme: "Youth Voices Lead".
COLLAGE DANCE THEATRE	JMP-21A-16892	LOS ANGELES	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Heidi Duckler Dance will partner with the Division of Juvenile Justice to present two consecutive 12-week residency programs at the Ventura Youth Correctional Facility. This program will utilize movement-based artistic practice to bring healing, resiliency, and self-regulation techniques for incarcerated youth.
COMBAT ARTS SAN DIEGO INC	JMP-21A-16827	SAN DIEGO	$ 24,530	With support from the California Arts Council, Combat Arts San Diego, Inc. will develop and administer the "RISE" mural project for at-promise youth. In collaboration with professional artists, RISE participants will be empowered to self-express and connect through art making to alleviate stress and to advocate for a better future.
COMMUNITY WORKS WEST INC	JMP-21A-17974	ALAMEDA	$ 49,302	With support from the California Arts Council, Community Works West will offer healing arts education to youth with incarcerated parents. In this youth-led program supported by teaching artists, youth will learn design and performance skills to support their healing and advance narrative change, culminating in a public arts event.
CREATIVE CROSSING CO-CREATE	JMP-21A-16669	KERN	$ 47,500	With support from the CAC, CCCC, will employ artists to teach mural art and vocational skills in a two-phase program for system-affected youth, providing 48 weeks of lessons. The first teaches foundation of art and business/marketing strategies. The second will support artists in aftercare as they complete community mural art.
CREATIVE HOUSE	JMP-21A-17408	LOS ANGELES	$ 35,883	With support from the California Arts Council, CREATIVE HOUSE will be able to expand its role in the community by helping at-risk youth and urban adults through its art program. With the help of CAC, we can further our efforts in revitalizing the community through Art.
DESTINY ARTS CENTER	JMP-21A-17072	ALAMEDA	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Destiny Arts Center (Destiny) will partner with Oakland alternative schools, restorative justice programs, and residential treatment centers to bring professionally taught movement and cultural arts programs to approximately 60 systems-engaged/affected high school or transitional-aged youth.
DIABLO BALLET	JMP-21A-17135	CONTRA COSTA	$ 42,705	With support from the California Arts Council, Diablo Ballet will lead PEEK, a creative movement and social emotional program, for at-risk boys incarcerated at the Orin Allen Youth Rehabilitation Facility. The PEEK Program teaches students how to utilize movement to overcome behavioral, and mental health roadblocks that impact their lives.
EAST BAY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS	JMP-21A-17096	CONTRA COSTA	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, EAST BAY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS will offer a joint performing arts and youth development model that prevents 130 at-promise Richmond youth from entering or reentering the criminal justice system, while acknowledging and drawing upon their inherent resilience, beauty and talent.
EAST PALO ALTO YOUTH ARTS & MUSIC CENTER	JMP-21A-18042	SAN MATEO	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, EPACENTER will launch a one-year long, community-wide neighborhood beautification project in which up to 50 opportunity youth, ages 11-25, in the City of East Palo Alto will create public artworks on pedestrian bridges, electrical boxes, light poles, and buildings across their City.
EVERYBODY DANCE NOW	JMP-21A-16755	SANTA BARBARA	$ 47,500	With California Arts Council support, Everybody Dance Now! will provide dance therapy and mentoring to system-affected youth: implementing hybrid in-person and virtual programming for young males of Los Prietos Boys' Camp, and dance education for at-promise youth, ages 5-18, who live in People's Self-Help Housing communities in Santa Barbara.
FOSTERING DREAMS PROJECT	JMP-21A-17126	LOS ANGELES	$ 46,800	With the support of California Arts Council, Fostering Dreams Project will provide 35 probation youth with an exclusive after school program focused on the healing art of dance and music therapy. Program: 2x per week for 16 weeks, 32 total classes, dance choreography, video shoot, performance and music sessions.

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards
JUMP StArts

FRESNO METRO BLACK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE	JMP-21A-17351	FRESNO	$ 47,500	With the support from California Arts Council, Fresno Metro Black Chamber Commerce will provide trauma informed, culturally responsive and empowering Expressive Arts programming for justice involved and systems impacted youth/young adults 14-21
HOUSE OF BLUES MUSIC FORWARD FOUNDATION	JMP-21A-17262	LOS ANGELES	$ 36,774	With support from the California Arts Council, Music Forward will impact 80+ at-promise youth in Kings County, CA through "All Access: Careers in the Music Industry" during the 2022-23 academic year. The program reduces disengagement and empowers young people by using music as a gateway to creative careers.
INK PEOPLE INC	JMP-21A-17292	HUMBOLDT	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, INK PEOPLE INC will facilitate five professional artist-teachers to work in Humboldt County's Juvenile Hall to engage youth in poetry, Native American storytelling, guitar lessons, digital music composition, mural design, painting, and animation.
JAIL GUITAR DOORS	JMP-21A-17120	LOS ANGELES	$ 46,666	With support from the California Arts Council, Jail Guitar Doors will provide our 16-week "Songs & Beats" songwriting program to youth who reside at the Ventura Youth Correctional Facility for three cycles yearly. CAC funds will cover program expenses such as journals and pens, musicmaking supplies, mileage, and teaching artist wages.
JOSE COSTAS CONTEMPO BALLET	JMP-21A-17203	LOS ANGELES	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Contempo Ballet seeks to provide system-engaged and/or system-affected youth with a unique and creative outlet for self-expression using the language of dance to communicate their emotional journey and individual experiences on how their lives are disrupted and altered by a judiciary court system.
JUSTICE FOR MY SISTER COLLECTIVE (FBO COMMUNITY PARTNERS)	JMP-21A-17406	LOS ANGELES	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Justice for My Sister will cover instructors' and mentors' salaries during the 2023 edition of our Video Diaries program. For 8-weeks, Video Diaries will provide career development opportunities to system-impacted youth, ages 18-24, to tell their own story in a 5-minute video.
KIDS IN THE SPOTLIGHT INC	JMP-21A-17410	LOS ANGELES	$ 50,000	CAC funds will underwrite a full Script-to-Screen cohort providing transformative media arts education and vocational training to Black and brown system-impacted youth in Los Angeles County. Kids In The Spotlight's trauma-informed filmmaking programs use the power of storytelling to help youth collectively create stories that transcend themselves.
LA COMMONS	JMP-21A-17001	LOS ANGELES	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, LA Commons will bring artist residencies as a complement to other services at Fremont Wellness Center and Community Garden, enhancing this community oasis' role as a place for at promise youth to learn, connect and be mentored through engagement with the arts.
LA PROMISE FUND	JMP-21A-17616	LOS ANGELES	$ 41,406	With support from the California Arts Council, LA Promise Fund will provide 9-week after-school animation clubs each semester of the 2022-23 school year at two South LA middle schools. Clubs will focus on stop-motion animation and character design, with a maximum of 20 at-promise youth participating in each club.
LARKIN STREET YOUTH SERVICES	JMP-21A-17392	SAN FRANCISCO	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Larkin Street Youth Services' Art Program will offer systems-impacted youth participation in a six month long media arts cohort titled, "JUSTFree." JUSTFree will empower participants to positively process their experiences, build rapport with peers, and think critically and holistically about impact and justice.
MADERA COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL	JMP-21A-17244	MADERA	$ 27,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Madera County Arts Council will continue to bring art and design instruction to incarcerated youth in Madera County. Ages range from 11-23 years of age with most of the students in the 13-18 age range.
MARIN SHAKESPEARE COMPANY	JMP-21A-17455	MARIN	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Marin Shakespeare Company will provide Drama Therapy-inspired performing arts instruction to young men at O.H. Close and N.A. Chaderjian, with facilitators who are survivors of incarceration.
MARIPOSA COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL INC	JMP-21A-17296	MARIPOSA	$ 50,000	Supported by the CAC, the Mariposa County Arts Council (MCACI), with the Alliance for Community Transformations (Alliance), will develop/implement artist-in-residencies/mentorship arts learning programming for system-impacted and at-promise youth throughout Mariposa. The residences will focus on the creation of public art interventions and performances addressing identity, place, and community.
MC ARTS AND CULTURE	JMP-21A-17139	MARIN	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, MC Arts and Culture will partner with the Marin County Probation Department-Juvenile Services, to provide art instructors and mentors who will expose at risk and "at promise" youth to Cultural Arts and educational enrichment using film, literature, theater, dance and the spoken word.

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards
JUMP StArts

MEDIA ARTS CENTER SAN DIEGO	JMP-21A-16819	SAN DIEGO	$ 47,500	With support from California Arts Council, Media Arts Center San Diego will strengthen Emerging Makers: Youth Media Arts Workshops in partnership with Second Chance and Juvenile Court Community Schools to benefit vulnerable and system-engaged youth. Youth explore digital arts careers & filmmaking on topics like community, health and restorative justice.
MEZTLI PROJECTS	JMP-21A-17846	LOS ANGELES	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Meztli Projects will offer our Cultural Worker Apprentice Program (CWAP) to young Native and Indigenous artists. The Cultural Worker Apprentice Program offers youth the opportunity to co-design learning pathways to enter the creative workforce through fellowships, special projects, and facilitation training.
MID-CITY COMMUNITY MUSIC	JMP-21A-16508	SAN DIEGO	$ 49,984	With support from the California Arts Council, Mid-City Community Music will provide arts entrepreneurship workshops for students in San Diego's Juvenile Court and Community Schools that guide them through the process of building e-commerce businesses based on their original works of art that tell their stories and represent their communities.
MILLION LITTLE	JMP-21A-17568	LOS ANGELES	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Million Little will provide strengths-based arts programming at juvenile detention camps and social services agencies in Los Angeles; it is a year round program (July 2022 - June 2023) to support the healthy social and emotional development and healing process of system-engaged youth.
MOVIMIENTO DE ARTE Y CULTURA LATINO AMERICANA DE SAN JOSE INCORPORATED	JMP-21A-17335	SANTA CLARA	$ 50,000	With support from the California Arts Council, MACLA will engage at-risk and underserved youth in hands-on learning and prosocial development activities as they acquire digital media skills, use creativity, and advance their voice in a safe space with caring Latinx mentors.
MUSEUM OF CHILDRENS ART	JMP-21A-16452	ALAMEDA	$ 50,000	With the support of the California Arts Council, Museum of Children's Art will offer free Art is Resilience at Golden Gate Community Schools in Contra Costa County. Programming consists of weekly art integration sessions led by professional Teaching Artists in collaboration with community and Juvenile Justice professionals.
MUSIC CHANGING LIVES	JMP-21A-18080	RIVERSIDE	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Music Changing Lives, Music Changing Lives will offer at-risk students a 21-week music and art after school program, called the Changing Lives Showcase, (CLS). The program focuses on increasing graduation rates for K-12 students while creating powerful music and art experiences.
MUSICIANS AT PLAY FOUNDATION INC	JMP-21A-17144	LOS ANGELES	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, MUSICIANS AT PLAY FOUNDATION INC will respond to the needs of LA youth vulnerable to being engaged in or by the justice system, by using music education as a platform creating arts learning opportunities that foster positive socio-emotional, behavioral, academic, and developmental outcomes.
MUSICIANS FOR EDUCATION INC	JMP-21A-16618	SAN DIEGO	$ 47,500	With CAC support, Musicians for Education will provide an experiential arts education college-bridge program for 100 at-risk teen mothers attending Lindsay Community Juvenile Court School. We provide standards-based arts education credits needed for high school graduation and enrollment in college. One hundred percent of our students complete our program.
NATIONAL ACADEMIC YOUTH CORPS INC	JMP-21A-16948	SACRAMENTO	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, the National Academic Youth Corps, DBA, the Sojourner Truth African Heritage Museum, and Andre Morris Foundation, collectively as a "Community-Committee, of Correctional officers and Cultural Creatives," will use the arts as a Catalyst for BIPOC youth to transitioning successfully through the justice system.
NO EASY PROPS INC	JMP-21A-17895	LOS ANGELES	$ 52,500	With support from the California Arts Council, No Easy Props Inc. will support system impacted youth and youth at risk in Los Angeles with a stipend based mentorship and apprenticeship training program in the creative arts, healing arts, and arts entrepreneurship as part of the Fortify Our Rebel Youth Program.
NUEVA VISION COMMUNITY SCHOOL	JMP-21A-18058	LOS ANGELES	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Nueva Vision Community School will offer free music programs that serve refugee children and at-risk youth throughout Los Angeles. Instruments offered will include piano, guitar, and drums. Grant funds will be used for staff salaries and program materials.
OLD GLOBE THEATRE	JMP-21A-16461	SAN DIEGO	$ 38,762	With support from the California Arts Council, Old Globe Theatre will continue our successful Reflecting Shakespeare program for justice-involved youth. Students will build confidence, experience positive social support, and give voice to their experiences and feelings through creative reflective writing and the performance of Shakespeare's plays.

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards
JUMP StArts

OUTSIDE THE LENS	JMP-21A-17970	SAN DIEGO	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council and in partnership with San Pasqual Academy and S.O.U.L Community School, Outside the Lens will bring photography, filmmaking, and digital media to students who are dependents of the Juvenile Court of San Diego County, to explore and tell their stories.
PLAYWRIGHTS PROJECT	JMP-21A-17807	SAN DIEGO	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Playwrights Project will empower justice involved youth to write plays that communicate the changes they want to see in the world, uplifting individual voices, and developing greater empathy for one another. The grant will fund artists' fees and program and production costs.
PUTNAM FOUNDATION	JMP-21A-16613	SAN DIEGO	$ 44,856	With support from the California Arts Council, Putnam Foundation (DBA Timken Museum of Art) will provide free two hour weekly art classes to system-engaged boys and girls. Youth will receive school credit, be critically engaged with arts education, and two students will have the opportunity to receive paid internship work.
RAIZES COLLECTIVE	JMP-21A-17397	SONOMA	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Raizes Collective will be able to support at-promise youth in the Roseland area in Sonoma County through Programa Cosecha, an arts and culture after school based program designed by Raizes Collective, to support socio-emotional mental health needs post pandemic.
RED LADDER THEATRE COMPANY	JMP-21A-17364	SANTA CLARA	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Red Ladder Theatre Company will work with at-promise youth in the Dependency Court system, engaging them in workshops in the creative process through participatory theatre activities that promote overall well-being and culminate with performances of devised work and a community celebration.
REDISCOVER CENTER INC	JMP-21A-17443	LOS ANGELES	$ 2,250	With support from the California Arts Council, REDISCOVER CENTER INC will pilot a new workshop series in collaboration with the Coalition for Engaged Youth to serve 30 justice-involved young adults with assemblage, crafting, and woodworking programs, collecting feedback and data on how best to serve Coalition-served youth long term.
RHYTHM ARTS ALLIANCE	JMP-21A-16413	LOS ANGELES	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Rhythm Arts Alliance will facilitate 4, 12-week drum, dance and song workshops for at-promise youth in LA. Possible sites include: Camp Barry J. Nidorf, Panorama JDRC, Nueva Maravilla Housing Authority, Ted Watkins Park. Each cycle culminates with a youth performance blending these arts.
RHYTHMIC PATHWAYS	JMP-21A-17227	ALAMEDA	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Rhythmic Pathways (RP) will continue its musical education program that promotes music education and social-emotional learning in the Juvenile Justice Center in San Leandro, CA. Coordinated with the innovative RP re-entry program, funds received will support program expansion to meet growing demand.
RIVERSIDE COUNTY PHILHARMONIC ASSOCIATION INC	JMP-21A-18073	RIVERSIDE	$ 2,250	With support from the California Arts Council, RIVERSIDE COUNTY PHILHARMONIC ASSOCIATION INC will continue to explore a collaboration that we began in 2021 to work with County Probation Department and the youth participating in Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Program. We hope to expand the program to include more interaction.
RUCKUSROOTS INC	JMP-21A-17835	LOS ANGELES	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, RuckusRoots will continue our The Rebel Garden Project in partnership with Youth Justice Coalition / Chuco's Justice Center in South Los Angeles. Funds will be used to compensate program staff and facilitators and purchase supplies.
RYSE INC	JMP-21A-16756	CONTRA COSTA	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, RYSE INC will continue Freedom Beatz, a collaborative music production and music history exploration for youth and staff at Juvenile Hall in Contra Costa County. Relationship building, social-emotional learning, and creativity among youth, staff, and arts educators are cultivated within our healing-based model.
SAN BENITO COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL	JMP-21A-17171	SAN BENITO	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, the San Benito County Arts Council will continue its 7th year of the Dreams Project, which increases arts accessibility and participation for system-engaged youth at the San Benito County Juvenile Hall, San Andreas, Santa Ana and Pinnacles continuation schools.
SAN FRANCISCO MIME TROUPE	JMP-21A-17552	SAN FRANCISCO	$ 31,575	Project Avary provides youth directly impacted by mass incarceration a 3-day comprehensive youth-led theater workshop to write and perform an original production about issues that are important to them. Bold storytelling allows them a safe space to unpack their own stories and invite healing dialogue and solution for collective liberation.
SELF-HELP GRAPHICS AND ARTS INC	JMP-21A-16967	LOS ANGELES	$ 26,534	With support from the California Arts Council, Self-Help Graphics and Arts Inc (SHG) will serve Los Angeles youth (ages 15-20) with the third cohort of the SHG Youth Committee. Participants receive training on topics such as civic engagement, activism, community health, and restorative justice that culminates in a cohort-defined project.

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards
JUMP StArts

SOUND ART	JMP-21A-16731	LOS ANGELES	$ 33,250	With support from California Arts Council, In The Band (formerly Sound Art) will implement our mobile music program, using professional musicians to teach songwriting, recording and production to system-affected, at-promise homeless and former foster youth, ages 18–25, living at Penny Lane Center transitional housing in North Hills, Los Angeles.
SOUTH BAY ARTIST COLLECTIVE	JMP-21A-17764	LOS ANGELES	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Indivisible Arts (previously known as South Bay Artist Collective) will create accessibility for at-promise and system-involved youth to attend its creative mental health program, The Creative Wisdom Tools, through providing scholarships.
SOUTHERN EXPOSURE	JMP-21A-17468	SAN FRANCISCO	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Southern Exposure (SoEx) will partner with Mission Girls' Young Queens on the Rise program. We will pair 15 Young Queens with dedicated teaching artists to conceive and create works of art for a community-based project to be exhibited professionally in SoEx's gallery space.
SOUTHLAND SINGS	JMP-21A-16740	LOS ANGELES	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Southland Sings will deliver "My Story, My Voice: Poetry to Song," a 20-session sequential arts residency program, to system-engaged students in the Orange County Department of Education's Alternative, Community and Correctional Education Schools and Services (ACCESS) program.
SQUARE ROOT ACADEMY	JMP-21A-16786	SACRAMENTO	$ 45,000	With support from California Arts Council, Square Root Academy will implement SRA Create to teach scholars foundational skills in digital illustration, NFTs, and techniques for displaying art in the virtual world. Scholars will be equipped with necessary equipment to create artworks, animations, and digital content, culminating in an end-of-year showcase.
STREET POETS INC	JMP-21A-16782	LOS ANGELES	$ 26,410	With support from the CAC, Street Poets will facilitate 2, 12 week Poetry/Gardening workshops at two LA Conservation Corps that begin with Street Poets performance and culminate with a performance of youth work. Youth learn to plant, grow and harvest a garden, working in the soil and feeding their soul.
SUCCESS CENTER SAN FRANCISCO	JMP-21A-17025	SAN FRANCISCO	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Success Centers will strengthen the pipeline between detention-based and community-based arts programming for justice involved youth.
TEAMWORKS ART MENTORING PROGRAM	JMP-21A-16573	MARIN	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, TeamWorks Art Mentoring Program is uniquely poised to offer visual arts education and culture-affirming activities, with in-depth mural arts experiences as a community-building social practice, with and for system-engaged and system-affected youth in their schools and neighborhoods.
THE AJA PROJECT	JMP-21A-17101	SAN DIEGO	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, The Aja Project can foster a space for interdependent and self-sufficient discovery. The Compass program serves as a hub for community wellness resources, a space to connect to local artists in the San Diego Tijuana region and opportunities for employment after graduation.
THE DAVID S HARP FOUNDATION INC	JMP-21A-17607	SAN DIEGO	$ 47,251	With support from the California Arts Council, David's Harp will empower their Artist Mentors (local Hip-Hop artist/producers/instructors) to build authentic mentoring relationships with youth, hold creative space for them to process the trauma of incarceration, and to build a creative workforce development "pipeline-to-productivity" for youth to access upon their release.
THE H E ART PROJECT	JMP-21A-16601	LOS ANGELES	$ 47,500	With support from the California Arts Council, artworxLA will deliver two 15-week artmaking workshops at 10 juvenile justice facilities operated by L.A. County Office of Education in 2022/23. Responding to current social issues, student projects are inspired by L.A. cultural institutions (2021/22: Metro Art and Academy Museum of Motion Pictures).
THE NEW CHILDRENS MUSEUM	JMP-21A-17181	SAN DIEGO	$ 35,901	With support from the California Arts Council, THE NEW CHILDREN'S MUSEUM will collaborate with Lindsay Blended Community School on an Artist Residency for 30 young women (Grades 9-12, mostly expecting or new mothers). A local, BIPOC artist will present 34 weeks of lessons, a student exhibition, and a staff training.
THE YOUNG AMERICANS INC	JMP-21A-17836	RIVERSIDE	$ 22,500	With support from the California Arts Council, the Young Americans will partner with the Alternative, Community, and Correctional Education Schools and Services (ACCESS) Department within the Orange County Department of Education (OCDE) to provide a 15-week performing arts program for ACCESS students who are incarcerated.
THEATRE & ARTS FOUNDATION OF SAN DIEGO COUNTY	JMP-21A-17525	SAN DIEGO	$ 27,000	With support from the California Arts Council, the Theatre & Arts Foundation of San Diego County, dba La Jolla Playhouse (the Playhouse), will provide incarcerated students with an introductory survey course in the vocational skills necessary to become professional theatre technicians, designers, craftspeople, artisans, or special events crew.

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards
JUMP StArts

THEATRE FOR CHILDREN INC	JMP-21A-16937	SACRAMENTO	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, B Street Theatre will expand its multi-year partnership with the Sacramento County Office of Education, providing playwriting workshops to at-risk youth in the CARE Program & Juvenile Justice system.
TODAY'S FUTURE SOUND	JMP-21A-16844	ALAMEDA	$ 47,500	With support from the CAC, Today's Future Sound, in partnership with Rhythmic Mind (a 501c3 Hip-Hop Therapy organization) will deliver interdisciplinary, culturally-sustaining, therapeutic Arts education to youth in Alameda County Juvenile Hall. This trauma-informed and strengths-based project will build upon previous years of work utilizing the healing power of Hip-Hop.
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA SANTA BARBARA	JMP-21A-16794	SANTA BARBARA	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, University of California Santa Barbara will bring The Trojan Women Project to the Ventura Youth Correctional Facility. TTWP is a theater arts leadership program for incarcerated females who leverage Euripides' heroines' tragedies to strategize productive outcomes for themselves from the ashes of Troy.
UNUSUAL SUSPECTS THEATRE CO	JMP-21A-16625	LOS ANGELES	$ 42,750	With support from the California Arts Council, The Unusual Suspects Theatre Company (US) will provide two 10-week theatre-arts education residencies at Dorothy Kirby Center. Guided by standards-based, healing-informed lessons, approximately 40 incarcerated minors will collaborate to create and/or perform a play. Funds will support artists and staff implementing the residencies.
URBAN ARTS COLLABORATIVE (UAC)	JMP-21A-18076	MONTEREY	$ 47,250	With support from the California Arts Council, Urban Arts Collaborative will create opportunities for young and adult local artists to curate and exhibit gallery work on social justice, racial equity, food justice and COVID-19. Participating will receive modest stipends for their participation, support for professional development and technical assistance.
URBANISTS COLLECTIVE	JMP-21A-16932	KINGS	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, URBANISTS COLLECTIVE will, support an Augmented Reality project the Stories with Style program, a Hip Hop influenced curriculum that promotes healing through creative storytelling for incarcerated students in Hanford, California. We will utilize Augmented Reality technology as a unique way to engage storytelling.
VENTURA COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL	JMP-21A-16475	VENTURA	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Ventura County Arts Council will continue working with youth in the system, in foster care, in transitional housing, in juvenile hall and at the county's evening reporting centers-- bringing them arts opportunities, teaching and supporting them, publishing their poems and lifting their voices.
VICTORY OUTREACH-SOUTH SACRAMENTO	JMP-21A-17298	SACRAMENTO	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, VOSS will implement Influencers 4 Change, an arts education and engagement program that will provide at-promise youth, with a focus on justice-involved youth and youth in foster care, the opportunity to engage with the arts and express themselves through audio engineering and videography.
WOMEN WONDER WRITERS	JMP-21A-17509	RIVERSIDE	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, WOMEN WONDER WRITERS will continue the art programs for formerly incarcerated people, people of color and disadvantage communities. With this Grant, WWW will be able to provide both Art Programs and case management for these less marginalized communities.
YEAH, ART!	JMP-21A-17890	ALAMEDA	$ 49,875	With support from CAC, Yeah, Art! will bring arts education workshops to public schools. This grant will allow Yeah, Art! to grow our nonprofit and make arts education more inclusive, accessible and relevant — particularly in communities of color.
YOLO COUNTY ARTS COUNCIL INC	JMP-21A-17050	YOLO	$ 28,500	With support from the California Arts Council, Yolo County Arts Council will engage 60 system engaged youth attending Cesar Chavez Community School and in juvenile hall. Youth will direct and engage in arts program, and development, in visual arts, graphic design, filmmaking, creative writing, and HipHop spoken word/poetry.
YOUNG AUDIENCES OF SAN DIEGO DBA ARTS FOR LEARNING SAN DIEGO	JMP-21A-17671	SAN DIEGO	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Arts Education Connection San Diego, formerly known as Arts for Learning San Diego, will implement the Art Works and Theatre Works Fellowship arts career pathways programs, providing opportunity youth with professional skill building and investigating creative, fulfilling, and viable careers.
YOUTH BEAT -- A FISCALLY-SPONSORED PROJECT OF THE OAKLAND PUBLIC EDUCATION FUND	JMP-21A-17083	ALAMEDA	$ 47,224	With support from the California Arts Council, Youth Beat will partner with Fresh Lifelines for Youth to provide media arts training for 25+ system-impacted youth ages 18-24. Participants will learn through hands-on projects designed to engage their creativity, build their confidence, lift their stories and build employable content creation skills.

2022 Cycle A Grant Awards
JUMP StArts

YOUTH UPRISING	JMP-21A-17473	ALAMEDA	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, Youth UpRising will provide marginalized, justice-impacted youth the opportunity to articulate their experiences and express their creativity through fine arts instruction, multimedia production, and performing arts. This helps youths acquire cultural literacy, gain valuable life skills, and develop voices as community leaders.
YUBA COUNTY SUTTER COUNTY REGIONAL ARTS COUNCIL	JMP-21A-16766	YUBA	$ 45,000	With support from the California Arts Council, YSAC will collaborate with Yuba-Sutter Juvenile Hall, Yuba and Sutter Counties' Offices of Education to bring arts programs to system-engaged youth. Programs will support youth whose life challenges require alternative education options by providing guidance for creative self-expression through music/writing and visual arts.